State Legislature Winds Up Special Allotment Session

It Doles Out $75 Million Bond Issue for Building and Repair Program; End Comparatively Calm

JEFFERSON CITY (AP) — Missouri's special legislative session came to the end of its 60-day trial today after allotting all of the state's $75 million bond issue for a big building and repair program.

The windup was calm — a sharp contrast to last night's hectic scene when the whole program was in jeopardy for a time.

Only technical sessions were held in both houses to complete the signing of the final bills. Then the House adjourned for the last time at 11 a.m., and the Senate followed suit 15 minutes later.

Four members were present in the House and 25 in the Senate. The session's big battle over money didn't end until the early hours of this morning.

It took the House until after midnight to back up and join the Senate in passing compromise bills

Highway Bill Moves Closer To Passage

House Settles Feud Over Who Is to Pay For Relocating Lines

Bulletin

WASHINGTON (AP) — The largest roadbuilding program in history — a $1½ billion dollar cooperative state and federal project — was approved by the House today and sent to the Senate.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House today moved its $1½-billion-dollar road construction bill a step closer to final passage by settling an argument over who should pay for relocating utility lines.

A voice vote adopted a compromise amendment by Rep. Jones (D-Ala.) who said it would "protect the states in their state statutes and contracts with public utility companies."

Jones said 42 states permit utility facilities along rights of way provided the utility companies will pay for moving them when necessary.

The amendment would allow the states to follow their previous practices. It would permit use of federal funds to pay utility relocation costs in certain instances but says federal money shall not be used when the payment to the utility would violate the law of the state or a legal contract between the utility and the state.

Invisible Mist Eats Paint From Autos

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — An invisible mist that can be felt and which smells like freshly sawed fiber wood, today still was causing Tulsa officials and some motorists trouble because it eats paint off automobiles.

Boyd Carroll

Ex-Sedalian Is Honored In Journalism

Boyd Carroll Gets Medal for His Work As a Correspondent

Boyd Carroll, who spent his boyhood days in Sedalia, is among five newspaper men to be accorded honor awards for distinguished service in journalism as part of the University of Missouri's Journalism Week program on May 4.

He is a son of the late Col. and Mrs. M. V. Carroll, whose father was many years secretary of the Sedalia Chamber of Commerce, which in its organization was first known as the Sedalia Booster Club.

Boyd, while in Sedalia High School in hours when his studies and homework did not occupy his full time, did reportorial work for the Sedalia Capital. At school he was a star athlete. After graduation he attended Drury College at Springfield, later joining the news staff of the Springfield Republican and serving as city editor of the Springfield Leader. From there he went on to become state editor of the Arkansas Gazette in Little Rock; joined the telegraph desk of the Memphis Commercial Appeal and was city editor of the Times Record at Ft. Smith, Ark., before joining the St. Louis Post-Dispatch in 1922. In 1924 he went to Jefferson City to act as the correspondent there for the Post-Dispatch and has held that position for 32 years.

He has served through the administration of nine Missouri governors, plus one in Arkansas, 19 legislative sessions, nine national political conventions and some 30 state political conventions. During these years he has covered many major political stories and participated in several fiery debates with administrative officers.

He was exiled for a year from one governor's office and was banned at one time by the Supreme Court, but was invited back in both instances. The first instance was the result of Carroll's exposures during an investigation of the administration of the governor's penal board in the 1920s. And the Supreme Court ban grew out of too speedy publication of an impending affirmative conviction in a kidnapping case in the middle 1930s.

His major stories in Jefferson City have included: the notorious fire insurance compromise, which ran from 1935 to 1939, and from which the policyholders recovered about eight million dollars; first disclosure of Boss Tom Pendergast's connection with the compromise; a bitter St. Louis transit (Please turn to page 4, column 7).

Grim Evidence

FIND BLOOD-STAINED SHIRT — The owner by the U.S. of two members of the Soviet delegation to the United Nations, accusing them of "objectionable and improper" conduct in the case of five Russian seamen who returned behind the Iron Curtain, came hard on the heels of testimony by the sailors' landlady, Mrs. Wassili Kowalew, and her husband, before the Senate Internal Security subcommittee. The couple displayed a blood-stained shirt worn by one of the sailors the night he disappeared. The Kowalews told the subcommittee the seamen were visited by two Russian Communists leaders.

Rejects Money Request

Maritime Officials Wanted to Build Three New Ships, Including A-Tanker

WASHINGTON (AP) — An administration request for $37,900,000 to build three experimental merchant ships, including an atomic tanker, was turned down today by the House Appropriations Committee.

The money had been included in the $1,522,673,000 President Eisenhower sought to finance the Commerce Department and related agencies for the fiscal year starting July 1. The committee cut the over-all request to $1,382,000.

The House Merchant Marine Committee had questioned the authority of the Maritime Administration to build the ships even if the money were provided.

Ninety-eight million was chopped from the 295 million requested for maritime activities and 25 millions from the 800 millions asked for federal-aid highway work. However, the money approved for the highway program is 35 millions more than Congress appropriated for the current year.

For the census Bureau the committee recommended 1½ million to start a census of governments, a million for a national housing survey, and $150,000 to prepare for 1950 censuses of business, transportation, manufacturers and mineral industries.

The Civil Aeronautics Administration was allotted 196 million a cut of 6½ million. The committee earmarked a large chunk of CAA money for construction of 16 new radar centers and improvement of existing radar.

Other allotments included $37,900,000 for the Weather Bureau, including an extra million dollars for hurricane and tornado research.

Blast Levels Brick Building And Kills 10

PULASKI, Va. (AP) — A restaurant owner lit a match to a gas heater and touched off an explosion and fire today that leveled a three-story brick building with the possible loss of 10 lives.

The blast rocked the old business section of this manufacturing town of 9,000 and in a matter of minutes the building was a giant torch. It housed a restaurant, two shops and a Salvation Army transients home on the ground level. Seven families lived in upper-floor apartments.

Four survivors of the 15 or 16 pitifulized and one unidentified body was recovered. Police Lt. G. E. Bouldin said he believed 10 to 12 bodies were in the smoldering ruins. Only the back wall and a small section of the side wall were still standing when firemen finally put down the flames.

A witness said the blast lifted the roof which then crumpled inward.

A National Guard company from the Pulaski-Radford area was ordered on duty.

Police Chief Lee S. Boothe said it probably would be late afternoon before the charred ruins could be examined carefully.

W. Mahaffey, the restaurant operator, said he was met with a roaring explosion when he struck a match to the gas heater at about 6 a.m. Mahaffey, a man in his 70s, was hospitalized with undetermined injuries.

Mahaffey's wife, who lived with him in an apartment upstairs, escaped from the building by sliding down a drain pipe. The first explosion blew off the back stairs to the apartment.

The Salvation Army maintained a transient headquarters on the first floor of the building. It was not known immediately if there were any occupants.

The explosion rocked houses for several miles and knocked out windows in an area of three blocks. Two cars in front of the buildings were demolished.

Thinks War Danger Is Less LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Eden told the nation tonight "it may be that the immediate dangers of war have receded" as a result of his talks here with Soviet Communist leaders.

Soviet Favors Ban On Shipping Arms To the Middle East

Bulganin Announces Eden Accepts Invitation to Visit Soviet Union; Wants Britain to Lead the Way

LONDON (AP) — Soviet Communist leader Nikita Khrushchev insisted today Moscow would welcome a ban on all shipments of arms to the explosive Middle East — provided the other nations were similarly pledged.

And Premier Bulganin announced Prime Minister Eden has accepted an invitation to visit the Soviet Union. Bulganin also made it clear the Russians expected Britain to take the lead in improving Soviet relations with the United States.

Khrushchev and Bulganin spoke at a mass farewell news conference shortly before they started homeward after a 10-day round of conferences with Eden, and tour of Britain. They described themselves as well satisfied.

Two hours later the Communist boss and Soviet Premier boarded the Soviet cruiser Ordzhonikidze in Portsmouth harbor and headed home.

The two leaders agreed to answer only written questions from the 500 newsmen crowding Central Hall, heard by the Houses of Parliament. Many of the questions were hostile in tone, and these Khrushchev took for himself.

Tired, but in obvious good humor, he deftly and jovially jugged words on Soviet intentions in the Middle East, the nuclear arms race, prospects for a top-level Soviet visit to the United States and prospects for British-Soviet trade.

His performance was watched by millions of Britons on television. Khrushchev declared that Russia does not ship arms to anyone.

"And we would like there to be no shipments at all," he said.

But, he added, "I think we would answer wrongly if we were to say that we would not sell arms to states which urge us to do and the reason for that is that shipments are being made by other countries.

"If it were possible to agree through the United Nations or otherwise that this would not take place," he said, "we would only

Democrats Will Direct Political Fire at Nixon

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Republicans' 1956 ticket was all but wrapped up today. Vice President Nixon said he would run again. President Eisenhower said he was "delighted."

Democrats, expressing no surprise at Nixon's decision, indicated they will direct plenty of fire at him. Many of them have bitterly criticized his campaign tactics in the past.

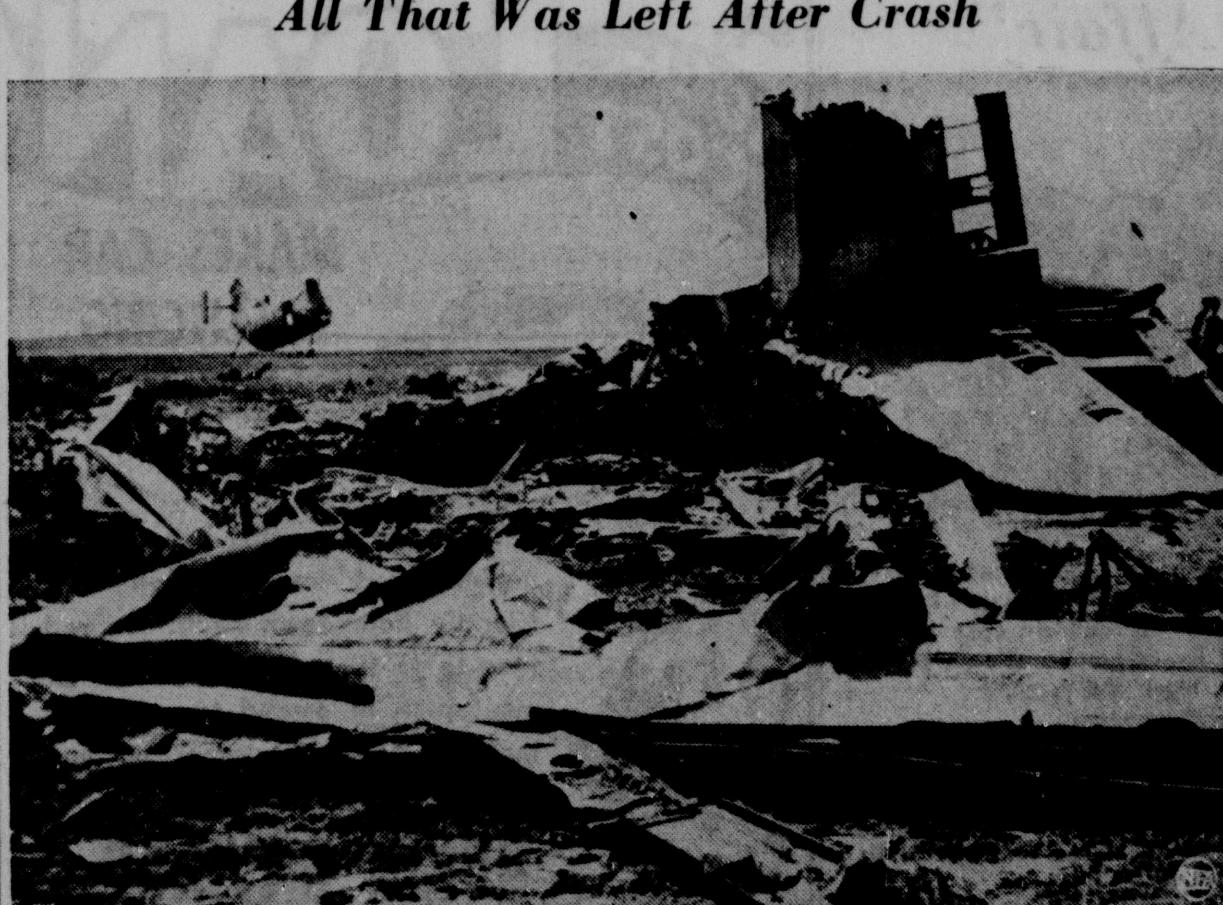

He seemed likely to shoulder a major portion of the GOP campaigning this year.

Barring some health setback for Eisenhower, Nixon's announcement yesterday seemed to leave only formalities for the GOP's August convention in San Francisco.

Sen. Knowland of California, Senate Republican leader, said even the drafting of a platform ought not to present much of a problem. "It will be based on the Eisenhower administration record," he said.

Knowland said Nixon's announcement "clarifies the political atmosphere" so the party now can "close ranks and direct attention to gaining majorities in the Senate and the House."

Lt. Governor Blair Presides Over Last Session of Senate

JEFFERSON CITY (AP) — Lt. Gov. James T. Blair Jr. presided over what was probably his last session of the Missouri Senate today.

He is running for governor on the Democratic ticket and will not be in the chair when the 1955 regular session convenes next January.

In his swan song from the dais, Blair recalled he had presided during seven sessions of the Legislature. He thanked the members for many past kindnesses and said he always would treasure his senate friendships.

The senators applauded.

August A. Busch, Jr. makes an important announcement

A NEW KIND OF BEER—DIFFERENT, EXCITING AND ENTHUSIASTICALLY ACCEPTED IN INTRODUCTORY MARKETS—WILL BE ON SALE HERE APRIL 30

"More people had it on hand in their refrigerators than any other brand of beer!"

That simple statement... from our most recent survey of 2,000 families in the test markets... explains why we are so excited here at Anheuser-Busch.

For the beer in those refrigerators is a new type of beer—a different beer—which was introduced for the first time late last summer in the entire state of Kansas and Kansas City, Missouri.

Never in our long experience in the brewing business have we seen a product catch on so quickly, win such widespread approval. And when you lift a snow-capped glass, you'll know why more people had this new beer on hand than any other brand.

The Idea... From Bavaria

Why is this beer different?...and so appealing? Because it fits America today!

The idea for it came from Bavaria...a land known for its outdoor sports and festivals, for majestic mountains and clear, cool, invigorating air—and for wonderful food and wonderful beer.

The type of beer they drink there is different. It has body. And flavor. But it is also light on the tongue... leaves your taste fresh...leaves you refreshed, ready to enjoy food or fun.

Fits America's New Way of Living

We felt that this type of beer would fit well with the new way of living here in America...the movement toward the suburbs...the informal "come-on-over" type of entertaining...the outdoor sports and barbecues...the bowling and golf and "do-it-yourself" activities which more and more Americans are adopting as they find they have more leisure time.

We have worked hard to achieve this kind of beer... the finest of its type made here in America...worthy of Anheuser-Busch traditions. And now we are sure we have it.

A different kind of beer...as clear and bright as a day in the Alps...and as refreshing. It goes well with food—with sports. We feel it is thoroughly in tune with America's new way of living.

The name is Busch® Bavarian. I hope you'll try it. I know you will like it!

Alger Hiss Makes First Public Speech

PRINCETON, N. J. (AP)—Alger Hiss spoke on the heavily guarded Princeton University campus last night in a calm anticlimax to weeks of fanfare.

It was his first public speech since his release from prison.

Protests against the heralded appearance of the convicted perjurer before a student debating society had led to rumors of possible demonstrations.

But all was peaceful. After speaking on foreign policy, Hiss slipped out a back door of the meeting hall to avoid a waiting crowd and returned to his New York City home.

Hiss, whose role at the Yalta conference has been in bitter contention for years, told the students that "we got what we asked for in terms of technical concessions."

He also said, "I don't happen to believe that Yalta is such a pernicious occasion."

A query from a student during a question period led to the reference to the 1945 Yalta conference among the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt, the then British Prime Minister Winston Churchill and the late Russian Premier Joseph Stalin.

Hiss, then a high-ranking State Department official, was an adviser to Roosevelt at Yalta.

Five years later—in 1950—he was convicted in New York City on perjury charges for denying before a federal grand jury that he passed out State Department secrets for a Soviet spy ring. He served almost four years in a federal penitentiary.

Hiss was well received last night by members of the American Whig-Clio Society who had invited him to address them.

They laughed at his quietly phrased jokes, and burst into applause frequently during his speech.

Hiss seemed to enjoy the experience. He spoke effortlessly, and appeared as relaxed as a professor delivering a routine lecture. The students made no reference to his trial and conviction during the question period.

University officials told reporters earlier that they "deplored" the invitation to Hiss, and they took elaborate precautions to avoid any incidents.

Before dark, the campus was closed to automobiles, and more than 40 campus police, proctors, and volunteers joined with Princeton town police to guard the routes to the hall.

Senator Asks For British Intentions

WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Jackson (D-Wash) said today "Britain should speak out frankly now," before Congress starts debate on foreign aid, on her intentions concerning more trade with Russia.

Sen. McClellan (D-Ark) said he hopes the British will have "the better wisdom" to reject Moscow's new offer to buy $2,000,000 worth of goods from the United Kingdom in the next five years.

Announcement of the offer in a joint Russian-British communiqué in London yesterday indicated that about half of what the Russians want is strategic items now embargoed for sale to the Communists by free world nations.

Pending further study, the senators reserved comment on this government's own almost simultaneous relaxation of its restrictions on the shipment of items—all described as peaceful—to Russia and her European satellites.

Secretary of Commerce Weeks made public a list of 700 items in 57 commodity groups affected by what he termed a "simplification in licensing procedures" for sale to the Communists.

Weeks said the action is "designed to carry out the government's objective, first announced by President Eisenhower at Geneva last July—to create conditions which will encourage nations to increase the exchange of peaceful goods throughout the world."

Weeks declared the relaxation on selected items "in no way reflects a change in the policy of banning strategic goods to the Soviet bloc." Likewise, he said, "the total embargo against all shipments to Communist China and North Korea remains unchanged."

About Town

M-Sgt. and Mrs. E. L. Hall, Topeka, Kan., and Forbes AFB, spent several days last week with their mother, Mrs. E. L. Hall and brother, G. W. Hall, in Otterville.

Sgt. Hall, an Army career man, has been in service for almost 14 years and was stationed in Alaska during World War II with the infantry. While returning to the States, he was assigned to the Air Corps as finance man. He was in Japan during the Korean war.

Hall is now on leave before shipping out to Ben Guerir AFB in French Morocco, North Africa. His wife will go with him and the household effects are now on the way over.

Robert Wild, associate professor of physics of the University of California, Riverside, will visit over Sunday with his mother, Mrs. A. Wild, his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Wheeler and his sister, Mrs. Ralph Hodges and Lee Short.

The treasurer reported $135 in the treasury. It was voted to sell the refrigerator and it was sold at once to Mrs. Ella Hoefer. The money was deposited in the treasury to help buy paint.

A play that was to have been given was postponed. A program of colored slides was given by Mr. and Mrs. Heacock, Sedalia, and music by Mr. and Mrs. George Cramer. Cards of sympathy were sent to Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Stratton, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Short and to Mr. and Mrs. Lester Shults, Mrs. Straten, Mrs. Schilb and Mrs. Lula Cordry.

The president, Mrs. Lincoln Schilb, conducted the business session. Visits to the sick, cards and letters sent were reported by the committee. Poems were read by Mrs. Lester Shults, Mrs. Straten, Mrs. Schilb and Mrs. Lula Cordry.

The Dorcas Class met Wednesday evening with Mrs. Edith Gochnour, who gave the devotional. Seventeen cards were sent to the sick. The class is sending soap and tooth paste to the Children's Home in Pattonville.

Plans were made to send canned food to the Children's Home at Pattonville. The meeting was

Petty Thefts Vs. Allowance..

A rash of petty thefts and break-ins is one of the most aggravating circumstances which can raise the blood pressure of a police department—in Big Town or Small Town.

Often the loot amounts to no more than ice cream, candy, or small change. Forcible entries to buildings like those being made in Sedalia recently, are merely to satisfy some boys' or young men's appetites.

But stealing like gambling calls for official attention, and there seems to be no differential between what is big gambling and little gambling according to Missouri law. We do have petit and grand theft, though.

Local police are keeping an eye on certain individuals who have been pairing up to go on midnight excursions into local business houses.

The big mystery is how these young men can stay out so late at night without raising the suspicion of their parents who have a certain right to know where their offspring has been and in what company. A little more parental checking may reveal that Junior may not be the darling mother thinks he is.

Besides the so-called thrill of executing petty thefts, there may be a more potent reason why some youngsters are stealing gasoline and auto accessories. They lack spending money for dates and hamburgers.

Perhaps the parents might make a re-appraisal of their son's weekly allowance and bring it up to the point where he won't be tempted to commit a crime which may land him in jail.

Washington Merry-Go-Round—

Guided Missiles Expert Target of Probe

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — An important detail was omitted from the story the Justice Department leaked out about Trevor Gardner, the guided-missiles expert who has been such a severe critic of the Eisenhower Administration for bogging down on guided missiles.

Attorney General Brownell's boys tipped off INS reporter Ruth Montgomery that the Senate investigating committee had forwarded its Gardner file to the Justice Department. Implication was that the senators wanted the Justice Department to check the file for possible law violations.

But what Brownell's boys neglected to mention was that the Justice Department specifically requested the file. Deputy Attorney General Bill Rogers sent the committee a formal letter asking for all its records on Gardner. In other words, it is the Justice Department, not the Senate, which is trying to revive the case.

This is in direct contrast to what the Justice Department has done in other cases. The Senate committee heard conflicting testimony during its investigation of ICC Commissioner Hugh W. Cross indicating that someone committed perjury. Yet the Justice Department showed not the slightest interest in reviewing this case.

The Justice Department also has done nothing about other conflict-of-interest cases, including former Air Force Secretary Harold Talbott, Public Buildings Commissioner Peter Strobel and Carl O. Hanson, the Farm Home administrator in Montana. Under the circumstances, Brownell's sudden interest in Gardner seems strange.

As a result senators suspect that Brownell is retaliating against Gardner for opposing the administration's guided-missiles program. A stanch Republican, Gardner resigned as assistant Air Force secretary with a blast at the administration for putting economy ahead of defense in the guided-missiles field.

Gardner's views are bannered in the current issue of Look Magazine. Unhappily for the administration, this coincides with Communist party boss Nikita Khrushchev's open boast that Russia will develop a hydrogen-headed, intercontinental missile ahead of the United States.

One reason senators suspect that Brownell is politically motivated is that the Senate investigating committee, after thorough investigation, dropped the case. The committee found some evidence that Gardner had conducted personal business on official Air Force trips, but it was not considered serious enough to pursue. In fact, he was not even asked to testify.

He and Walter
President Eisenhower was sitting at the head table at the American Society of Newspaper Editors' dinner. The ballroom of the Statler was a beehive of activity, as waiters scurried to clear the tables before the speeches.

Suddenly there was a terrific clatter.

A waiter had dropped a tray. Furthermore, he dropped it not far from the President. People around the President jumped. Head waiters scowled. To drop a tray at a big official dinner in the presence of the President is like a soldier being out of step as a crack guard of honor is reviewed by the President.

The waiter, red-faced, stooped and began to gather in his scattered dishes.

Suddenly the President turned and beckoned to him. The waiter approached. Ike handed him three crisp new one-dollar bills. Beaming, the waiter retreated with his dishes.

"Political" Prosecution?

The income-tax investigation of Senator Barkley ("The Veep") plus the trial of Truman's former Secretary Matt Connelly on May 6 plus the income-tax probe of eight Democratic congressmen seems to indicate a general pattern of crackdown timed for this political year.

Guest Editorial—

BOONVILLE DAILY NEWS: Question on Store Hours. A number of merchants here have indicated to us that they would like to open their stores on Friday evenings, remaining closed on Saturday nights. These merchants state that similar hours are being followed by stores in a number of neighboring towns similar to Boonville in size, as well as in some larger cities.

Whether this is a general trend, or one of those things that bob up now and then, we are in no position to say, however, if there is enough demand for such closing hours, it's up to the merchants themselves to discuss and decide.

While the above is discussed it might be well to think about daylight savings time, particularly if Kansas City should go on such a schedule. We understand that Rolla is to operate on daylight savings since St. Louis will be on it. Rolla is situated to St. Louis similarly as Boonville is to Kansas City.

Anyways, the two matters are food for thought for the merchants to consider if they care to.

Nixon's Announcement Is No Surprise

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—When a politician climbs the ladder to within one rung of the top, it's hard to jump off. So Vice President Nixon's announcement was made until the temperature looked normal.

Nixon has a knack for making people either like him or despise him. Almost everyone seems to like Eisenhower.

The feeling about Nixon ranges from that of Sen. Millikin (R-Colo) to that of former President Truman. When Millikin heard yesterday Nixon's hat was in the ring again, he said, "Good, good, good."

If Eisenhower should die before inauguration day next January, Nixon will be president. If the two men are elected and Eisenhower becomes president.

And if they both are elected and live out their term, Nixon will have a good chance for the Republican presidential nomination in 1960. It seemed only a matter of time before he said he'd like to be Eisenhower's running mate again.

Meanwhile, when the father of Gov. Allen Shivers' campaign manager in Texas was indicted by Brownell for mixing hog feed with good U.S. government-owned grain at the port of Galveston, Gov. Shivers flew to Washington, lunched with Ike, and a few days later the indictments against E. H. Thornton, Sr., and the members of the Argentine Bunge Corporation were dropped.

Your Child's Health—

Expert Guidance Is Vital In Speech Difficulties

By Edwin P. Jordan, M. D.

I suppose hundreds of thousands of parents at one time or another have worried about their children's speech—particularly about the most important difficulty, stuttering.

One mother asks about her three-year-old child who has never talked except to say "da da" or "ma ma."

A 16-year-old boy says that until a year ago his speech was perfectly normal but now he finds he is beginning to stutter.

Another correspondent asks whether there is any scientific basis for the theory that forcing a child who is left-handed to use the right hand may result in speech impairment.

The exact cause of speech defects, including stuttering, is not known. Some believe that children may be born predisposed to speech disorders.

Also, sex plays some obscure part since there are nearly five times as many boys who stutter as girls.

It is my impression that there is not as much weight given now as there used to be to the idea that forcing a left-handed child to use the right hand causes stuttering. It is not wise to make a left-handed child use the right hand. But a broad view expressed by Dr. Barbara in a book on stuttering (Julian Press, $5) says,

"Stuttering is not to be considered as an isolated disorder of the speech mechanism but as an outward expression of a more basic character disorganization."

The attack on speech defects (including stuttering) should come as soon as possible after such difficulty is first noticed.

It is important to get good advice since the management of speech defects depends, to a considerable degree, on the understanding by the parents and their handling of the situation. Furthermore, there may be things in the home environment about which are affecting the child's speech.

Much has been learned about stuttering and other speech defects and their treatment during recent years.

The results of proper treatment are often exceedingly good.

In most cases a stutterer, or a child with some other speech defect, should have expert guidance from one of the speech clinics spotted around the country. Information on them can be obtained from the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults, 11 South La Salle St., Chicago.

The booklet on stuttering prepared with the advice and guidance of the American Speech and Hearing Association and available through the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults is a good source of information as is the book on stuttering by Dr. Dominic Barbara previously mentioned.

It is important to remember that a youngster with stuttering or speech defect will not simply outgrow the difficulty. Therefore, expert care should be sought as soon as possible or the youngster may be seriously hampered in schoolwork or other activities.

Ruth Millett Says—

Housewife Has Had Enough Boyish-Grin Salesmanship

A few minutes ago I stopped in the middle of a column to answer the door. A young door-to-door salesman, one of those brought in by the truckload to canvass the town, was selling magazine subscriptions.

His opening remark was, "Are you the boss here?" It was said with a stylized version of the "boyish grin." No doubt he had been told by the man who trained him that no housewife can resist a "boyish grin."

His next remark was, "I am one of 50 young men being trained to meet the public."

Then he mentioned he was in a "contest" and so on and on.

I didn't resent the young-man.

But like most housewives I did resent being treated like an imbecile.

How long are we housewives going to be treated like halfwits by those who want to sell us something?

How long is it going to take the high pressure boys who train these telephone and door-to-door salesmen to wake up to the fact that the housewife's time is just as valuable as the time of a businessman?

She certainly doesn't want any salesman wasting 20 minutes of her time being coy before he admits what he is trying to sell.

How long is it going to take them to figure out that the average housewife isn't a gullible fool but, instead, is a practical shopper who just wants to know one thing from a salesman?

And that one thing is: Are you selling anything I need or am interested in buying?"

The longer it takes a salesman to get around to answering that question, the more important his potential customer becomes.

No, I didn't take any subscriptions.

But I might have if the young man had walked up to the front door and said honestly and with

Reasons For
Popularity Of
'Do-It-Yourself'

During the Clean Up-Paint Up-Fix Up campaign, you'll be hearing a great deal about "Do-It-Yourself."

Whether you practice it or hire professional assistance, you'll be interested in some of the reasons for its present popularity.

Among the factors responsible for the growth of this movement are:

1. The shorter work week provides more time for leisure.

2. The number of home owners has increased dramatically in the last ten years, and the fact of ownership increases pride of appearance.

3. There is renewed interest in the home—it is becoming a center again for family activities.

4. As families become larger (the number of fourth children has nearly doubled since 1940) there is need for more room and expansion of present homes is often the answer.

5. This self-improvement program is a money-saver.

6. As a hobby, it pays great dividends in satisfaction and sense of accomplishment.

7. Home values and resale prices increase with improvement activities.

So you can see that Do-It-Yourself fills many needs, especially financial and recreational. If you join in, you'll find out for yourself. If you only observe, you will at least understand your neighbor's enthusiasm for Do-It-Yourself, a nation-wide activity.

Babe Zaharias Leaves Hospital for Visit In Nearby Apartment

GALVESTON, Tex. (AP) — Babe Didrikson Zaharias, weary and 30 pounds lighter from her fight against cancer, grinned and did an animated little jig yesterday to show newsmen she is still taking life in her stride.

She left the hospital a short while yesterday to visit for the first time an apartment her husband, former wrestler George Zaharias, has taken nearby. There she had a reunion with her sister, Mrs. O. B. Grimes of Beaumont, and her 10-month-old Toy French poodle, Bebe.

The famous woman athlete, who has been in bed at John Sealy hospital the past four weeks in her third hospitalization during the last year, said she had learned to live with constant pain.

She said she has had time to think and that's one of the reasons she has started a fund to help finance research in its fight against cancer.

Attorney Claims Lots Of Rotten People Are In California Boxing

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — There are "lots of rotten people in boxing and no public supervision to speak of" in California, investigating attorney James Cox said today after the close of public hearings in a nine-month probe.

"I think the criminal element could be put out of boxing," he said. "If you bring regulations up to normal California standards in state government."

"I am personally convinced Gov. Goodwin J. Knight will follow through to correct and rectify the situation," Cox said, although "some of the people who got hit the hardest are among the people closest to the governor."

He referred to Mr. and Mrs. Cal Eaton of the Los Angeles Olympic Auditorium, parents of the governor's son-in-law.

Eaton and his matchmaker, Babe McCoy, are expected to be among those whom investigators recommended lose their licenses.

Doggie's Teams Get Bids

HANOVER, N.H. (AP) — Dartmouth basketball coach Alvin (Doggie) Julian has had five of his teams in post-season basketball tournaments in the last 13 years. His Muhlenberg teams went to the National Invitation Tournament in 1943 and 1944; his Holy Cross teams made the NCAA tourney in 1947 and 1948 and this year his Dartmouth Ivy League champions played in the NCAA tourney.

Wynn Pitches Superb Game When Bitter

By JOE REICHLER
The Associated Press

If poor old Early Wynn can manage to remain miserable through September, who knows, he may never lose a game this year.

It seems the worse he feels the better he pitches. At least that's the way it's been in his first two starts this season.

A week ago he read, the Cleveland was considering trading him to Chicago. That saddened the 36-year-old right-hander.

"It's an awful thing to pitch for a team which you feel no longer wants you," he said gloomily.

He was so depressed he went out and held Detroit to five hits in the Indians' 3-1 victory.

He refused to be consoled despite denials by Cleveland General Manager Hank Greenberg. "Where there's smoke, there's fire," he said bitterly.

With a heavy heart he took the mound against Kansas City yesterday and turned in a four-hitter, winning 14-2.

The Indians picked up a full game on the defending champion New York Yankees, who were beaten by the Orioles 7-5 in Baltimore. The rest of the American League schedule as well as the entire National League card was wiped out because of rain and cold weather.

Wynn had to share the spotlight with a teammate, Chico Carrasquel. The Venezuelan shortstop enjoyed a banner afternoon at the plate, driving in seven runs with a home run and double. His four-bagger came in the third inning with the bases full. His double also came with the bases jammed, in the fifth. The first blow was hit off Lou Kretlow, the starter and loser. The second blast was hit off Jack Crisman.

The Indians amassed a dozen hits off four Kansas City hurlers, including a home run by Bobby Avila and doubles by Vic Wertz and Gene Woodling.

The Orioles overcame a 4-0 lead piled up by the Yankees in the first inning. They peeked away at Tommy Byrne for single runs in the first and second, knocking out the veteran southpaw in the second. After the Yankees had 214 pins.

Kenneth L. (Tug) Wilson, Western Conference commissioner, announced the penalty yesterday in Chicago after a long and intensive probe.

Italian Star Will Return To Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Anna Magnani will be coming back to Hollywood.

That is the word from producer Hal Wallis, who wishes to correct reports that the Italian star wouldn't return here and thought little of her recent Academy Award. As proof, he offered a personal letter he recently received from Magnani. Here are some excerpts, with Miss Magnani's capitalizations:

"After the famous news of the OSCAR, received on March 21 at 6 o'clock in the morning from an American reporter, I spent four days and four nights sleepless. My home was literally invaded from reporters of all nationalities, from radio men of all parts of the world, from television reporters, and dozens and dozens of photographers every day.

"At the end of the fourth day, when I was through with all my obligations as a WINNER I collapsed from weariness, FROM HAPPINESS AND GLORY, AND I SLEPT. I BELIEVE, SOMETHING LIKE 14 HOURS!

"When I woke up I thought it was all but a wonderful dream!!!! Instead it was the actual truth!! For a few days after I was unable to realize that I had won. Just imagine, Hal, I was dumfounded from emotion and happiness. Rome was completely drunk from victory, and the common man as well as the important people, the man in the street, the policeman directing the traffic, all of them sent their congratulations because they felt that my victory was a national affair!

"I never believed to win the most coveted prize an artist can wish. The names of my rivals were names of big actresses and I had already won so many prizes for my interpretation, that I was positive not to win."

"She concluded: 'Dear Hal, keep going for the second picture, it must be a big success. A VERY BIG SUCCESS! GOOD LUCK! I HAVE FAITH IN YOU.'

"Just think that the morning of March 21 when a reporter insisted to talk to me, I thought it was a joke and hung up on him. He called back to ask me if I was crazy!!!!!! What happened after, I leave that up to your imagination." (Miss Magnani, who does most everything intensely, added 11 exclamation marks after that sentence.)

Hal Boyle's Column--

Holding Praise From Child Is Effective Punishment

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (P)—One of the most important duties a parent faces is the infliction of discipline on one's offspring.

All my life I have been a rebel against the idea of conformity. I have never wanted to be like anyone else. I have always wanted to be only myself—and after many years I'm not sure I've found the goal. I know, better than any critic, that I have yet to become the one I'd like to be.

Well, late in life but young in heart, my wife and I went to a department store to buy a garter and a toothbrush, and—you know how those department store people get confused.

Instead of what we really ordered, they sent a crying baby, wearing a pure mink diaper, to our address. Rather than say Mac's was wrong, rather than criticize Gimbel's, we took the girl. We named her Tracy Ann, and she is still the only thing after more than 18 years of marriage that a department store delivered which my wife has taken without checking on the exchange possibilities.

Our only investment in her has been love, and we feel no need of a refund.

The other evening, worn out by a hard day of adventure with other children, she ran a slight temperature, and her mother, hovering over her, heard her consoling murmur to herself:

"Mommy loves Tracy. Daddy loves Tracy."

This, so far as I know, is true. Neighborhood mothers like to have their children play with Tracy. The neighborhood children like to play with her.

But what about family discipline?

It is only when she is alone with her parents that the real devil succeeds the angel in Tracy. She won't be three until late

June. It is usually only to us alone that she shows the hellion in her—the normal negativity customarily with children in what the psychologists call "the terrible twos."

I come from an old-fashioned family, and I realize that much of my education came from a parental hand or belt applied to my backside. I felt the same formula applied to Tracy.

But I was a coward as a child—and Tracy Ann simply isn't. She is built like a truck and the infliction of physical punishment generally makes her only more stubborn. We have found that the most effective form of punishment with her is to withhold our usual praise of her. She is one soldier who flies her good conduct ribbon as a flag.

Any real criticism brings her to tears, and it is so unfair to a child that I do not have the heart to use it often.

I love the idea of freedom so much that I truly hate to scratch at a flea, realizing, as I do, each living thing is entitled to its empire.

The only times I ever swat Tracy hard is when she climbs into the window area—we live on the 8th floor—or when she starts into the street without holding my hand.

She has been told not to do these things. She has been told the reason why. To climb into the window area and lean out too far, or to adventure into the street by herself, might cause us to lose her, and that without her life could never be the same again for her father and mother.

The odd thing I have found is that when I pummeled her behind real hard out of blind panic because she has violated the laws of her personal safety she will weep but little, and come and cling to the palm swung against her. She knows why.

But if, jokingly, I raise my hand threateningly over a minor infraction of our family rules she will stand there, a baby tigress at bay, and say, "You can't spank me!" Sure enough I can't.

Generally speaking, I have found that in dealing with a daughter almost three—particularly in solving such topics as, "Don't make your poor old mother pick up all those toys," or, "If you really don't want this breakfast, please let me scrape it off your face"—it is better to abstain from a firm palm and hope for the best from a heart-to-heart talk.

At least when a woman is approaching the age of three she'll hear you through.

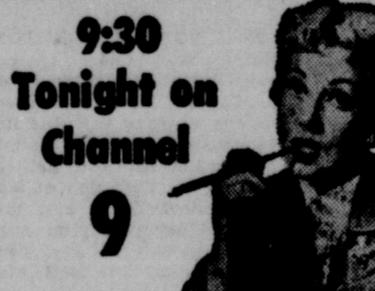

When you are baking popovers and take them from the oven, remove the hot bread immediately from the muffin cups so that their bottoms do not steam and soften.

House Into Debate On Road Plan

Demos, GOP's See Passage Of $51½ Million Highway Construction Bill

WASHINGTON, April 26—(P)—The House opened debate today on a new 51½-billion-dollar highway construction program measure with Democrats and Republicans saying it would pass.

Some preliminary scuffling came on a provision allowing the secretary of labor to set wage floors for workers employed on the proposed interstate highway system.

Opposition also was voiced against permitting the use of federal funds for relocation of utility company facilities along the road right-of-way.

Compromise On Utility Dispute

Rep. Martin (R-Mass.), House minority leader, told a reporter a compromise had been worked out on the utility dispute. He said it would permit the states to follow their usual practice in reimbursing utility companies.

Southerners led the fight against the wage rate provision.

Rep. Smith (D-Va.) called it "another step on the march to do away with the powers and sovereignty of the states." He said the federal government would be telling the states how they should spend the money they put into the project.

"Are we setting out to build roads, or are we setting out here to do something for utility companies on the one hand and labor unions on the other?" Smith demanded.

40,000 Mile System

The bill provides for an interstate system of 40,000 miles costing some 27½ billion dollars to be paid 90 per cent by the federal government and the rest by the states. It also provides a big step-up in the regular federal aid to states for highways.

In all, the bill calls for a 13-year road building program to cost 51½ billion dollars, some 37½ in federal funds and the rest from the states.

The Senate has approved a five-year, 13-billion-dollar program with the federal share to be financed by direct U. S. Treasury outlays from regular appropriations.

The House measure includes a $14,800,000,000 increase in taxes on road users. This includes a penny-a-gallon raise in the federal gasoline tax, making it three cents a gallon.

A vote on the House bill is expected tomorrow.

Files $50,000 Suit Against Dog Owner

ST. LOUIS, April 26—(P)—A $50,000 damage suit was filed in suburban Clayton against a dog owner today by a man who claimed he lost his left eye after being bitten by the animal.

John C. Mosby, head of a medical publishing firm, filed the suit against Edgar C. Taylor, head master of the Taylor school in the suburb.

The petition said Mosby was a visitor in Taylor's home last Feb. 12 when he was attacked by the Dalmatian. Mosby said the suit removal of his eye impaired his ability to perform his executive duties at the publishing firm.

Bus Driver Runs Down An Armed Pedestrian

MEXICO CITY (P)—Police were on the lookout today for a bus driver who bested a pedestrian in a bus-vs.-gun duel.

Witnesses gave this account: The bus bumped Alfonso de la Serna as he was crossing a street. The pedestrian started shouting insults at the driver and drew a pistol. The bus ran him down and a shot he fired as he fell went wild.

De la Serna died on the way to the hospital. The bus driver fled.

The Weather

CENTRAL MISSOURI—Cloudy, windy and warm Friday with scattered thunderstorms in afternoon and scattered showers tonight; partly cloudy and turning colder Saturday; high today in lower 80's.

The temperature Thursday at 7 a. m. was 56; 82 at 1 p. m. and 88 at 2 p. m. Low Wednesday night was 51.

Stage at Lake of the Ozarks 43.3 steady.

'Delighted' Approval By Ike; GOP Slate Is 'Ike And Dick'

WASHINGTON, April 26 (P)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon announced for renomination today, with President Eisenhower's "delighted" approval.

Building In LaMonte Burglarized Thursday

The Henry Hontz building in La Monte was broken into sometime Wednesday night or early Thursday by thieves who apparently stole a small amount of beer. The place has been closed for sometime and has not been under operation.

Sheriff John F. Taylor went to LaMonte and conducted an investigation. He reported the building was broken into through a rear door.

A check as to what was missing could not be definitely completed until the return of Mr. Hontz who was out of the city.

Reds Given Bitter Lesson On Relations

British Treatment Reveals Feeling On Differences

WASHINGTON, April 26—(P)—Soviet Premier Bulganin and Red chief Khrushchev have been subjected to a bitter lesson in relations with the Western powers for vice president that I would be honored to accept the nomination again as I was and as I did in 1952.

Hagerty, standing near Nixon, said:

"The President has asked me to tell you gentlemen that he was delighted to hear of the vice president's decision."

The selection of a vice presidential candidate this year was one of more than unusual concern for the Republicans.

Los Angeles Times, Five Newspapermen To Get Honor Awards

COLUMBIA, April 26—(P)—The Los Angeles Times and five newspapermen will be presented honor awards for distinguished service to journalism as a part of the University of Missouri's Journalism Week program May 4.

Individual awards will go to William Mapel, president of the Publishers' Assn. of New York; Louis N. Bowman, editor and publisher of the Tri-County News at King City; Boyd Carroll, veteran Jefferson City correspondent of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch; Alfred H. Kirchofer, editor of the Buffalo N. Y. Evening News; and Allen Kander, founder and president of the Kander newspaper brokerage firm in Washington.

The Los Angeles Times' award will be accepted by the editor, L. D. Hotchkiss.

All the recipients will be among speakers on the Journalism Week program opening Sunday.

Intruder Makes Mess

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (P)—Mrs. Frank Wood has a complaint about the intruder who entered her home twice in the last two days.

He takes a shower in the basement, splashing water around and leaving soggy towels here and there.

He's helped himself to some cold cuts and cookies. But he brings his own soft drinks and leaves the bottomless. And he's never bothered the family's valuables.

Cape Woman Crushed To Death Under Car

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo., April 26—(P)—A 33-year-old mother was crushed to death today beneath a family motor car which police believe dragged her 30 feet from where she had apparently attempted to stop it from rolling.

The body of Mrs. Fred Bendel was found by two school children. Police said the car came to a stop against a rock border in her garden.

Her 16-year-old son, Raymond, told police he had tried unsuccessfully to start the car to drive to school. He then took another family car.

Police theorized the accident happened as Mrs. Bendel attempted to get the car started a few minutes later. Police reported there were no witnesses.

Thief Takes Purse, Returns Part Of Money

INDEPENDENCE, Mo., April 26—(P)—While Mrs. Homer McDowell, Sharpsville, Pa., was here attending a convention 3 weeks ago, someone took from her car a purse containing $305.

Today Patrolman Ed Miles received an anonymous letter containing $250. A letter said the money had been taken from Mrs. McDowell's purse and asked the police to return the money to its owner.

WHERE NINE DIED IN FIRE—A fireman watches as fellow firemen inside a North Philadelphia dwelling throw out still burning furniture after a blaze which killed nine persons Wednesday. The dead included three women and six children. At least three others were injured. (AP Wirephoto).

Britain, Soviet Vow Efforts Toward Peace

Pledge Work Against H-War And For Peace In Palestine

LONDON, Friday, April 27—(P)—Britain and the Soviet Union pledged today to help outlaw hydrogen-war, stop the world's armament race and work for peace in Palestine.

But a joint communiqué on conferences of Premier Nikolai Bulganin and Communist Boss Nikita Khrushchev with Prime Minister Eden showed that any progress they made toward agreements in basic fields was minute.

The communiqué was signed after the two Russians returned to London from a flying trip to Scotland. Winding up their 10-day visit, they leave for Moscow today.

See Effect On World Tensions

While virtually no progress was made on East-West issues, the discussions' psychological effect on world tensions seemed likely to be moderately beneficial.

A top-level British diplomat said Eden achieved all he had expected—the benefit of personal contacts, frank talk and slight edging forward by the Russians in some spheres.

German reunification, a major point at issue, was not even mentioned in the four-page, 2,800-word communiqué. The British issued a special statement of their own vowing to strive for it.

"In view of Her Majesty's government," the British statement said, "the achievement of German reunification has an outstanding place among the problems whose solutions we must strive to promote. Indeed we are solemnly pledged under the Paris agreements of 1955 to pursue that end."

Russian Shift On Disarmament

Even before the communiqué was signed, the Russians disclosed a shift in their disarmament stand.

Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko told the U. N. Disarmament subcommittee meeting here last night Russia is now prepared to discuss abolition of nuclear weapons. He said the Russians may offer amendments to their own proposals, which had made no provision for nuclear weapons.

The British regarded the Soviet shift as at least a move in the right direction.

Both nations formally promised to support the United Nations in its effort to strengthen the peace in Palestine. They called on Israel and the Arab states to take steps themselves to reduce tension in the explosive demarcation line areas.

Small Step Forward

British diplomats said Russia's Palestine commitments represented a small step forward. They qualified this by saying it was only one step on a long and difficult road. And although Russia announced last week she would support U. N. action in Palestine, the British regard the communiqué statement as a more binding demonstration of will to help.

They invited other nations to assist in the Palestine problem and thus strengthen peace and security" in the Middle East.

Agreement was also reached on the need for support of U. N. efforts to alleviate the Palestine refugee problem—a key factor in the over-all problem of keeping the peace there.

Describes Advantages Of Experimental Two Year Nurses Training

KANSAS CITY, April 26—(P)—An experimental 2-year nurses training program was described today as offering certain advantages over the present 3-year hospital operated program.

William P. Miller, president of Weber College, Ogden, Utah, told about the experimental program at the annual meeting of the Mid-West Hospital Assn. His college is one of seven where the shorter training program is under way.

One benefit, he said, is less rigid control.

"The nursing students have the same status as other students in the college," he said. "They can live at home or make some other arrangement."

It offers them a chance for a more general education, he said.

Fire Fighters Carry Out Stove With Fire

MIDDLEBURY, Vt. (P)—There was a double fire at the home of Fire Chief Harry Whitney. He extinguished the original blaze near the chimney, only to have it rekindle later and break through the ceiling and roof. Neighbors carried out many articles, including a parlor stove with the fire still burning in it. They wore gloves on the job.

Sen. Hennings Sees Aid Need For Education

US' Competition With Soviet Calls For Schools Boost

ST. LOUIS, April 26—(P)—Sen. Hennings (D-Mo.) said tonight federal aid to education "on a scale never before contemplated" is needed for the United States to compete with Russia.

Hennings, in a speech prepared for delivery before students from six high schools, said the training of American youth is a matter of defense and is needed to implement any effective foreign policy.

Community, State Responsible

"Primary responsibility for the education of children has always, under our system of government, rested with the communities and the states, rather than the federal government," he said. "Yet many communities and many states are absolutely unable financially to provide the type of education required by our youth to cope with the problems of this complex, industrial age."

Russia Ahead In Engineers

The Missouri senator said Russia is winning the cold war in the field of education, by producing more qualified engineers than this nation.

"It would be a major blunder," he said, "for us to imagine that the Soviets lag behind us as abstract thinkers or as practitioners of arts and science just because they have a social and economic and political system which we detest."

He called the Republican "seven billion dollar air program" for construction tardy and small and said even the Democratic program of 500 million dollars for the next two years "is not a complete answer to the nation's problem."

Leimkuehlers Plan 2-Month Europe Tour

The Rev. and Mrs. Henry Leimkuehler, of Marshall, will leave Monday on a two-month tour of 11 European countries during which they plan to visit a number of foreign missions.

Rev. Leimkuehler, a graduate of the Baptist Seminary in Kansas City, Kan., has served the ministry at the Smithton, Mt. Herman, Antioch and County Line Baptist Churches.

He and Mrs. Leimkuehler are scheduled to begin their trip at 7 a.m. Monday when they will leave by bus from Marshall and expect to arrive in New York about 9 o'clock Tuesday evening.

Then on Wednesday, May 2, they will board the Queen Elizabeth to sail for England. The couple expects to embark at New Hampton, England, by May 7.

From there the Leimkuehlers will begin their tour of Europe, accompanied by a guide language interpreter sponsored by a traveling service.

Their first main stop will be London, and will travel through Switzerland, Denmark, France, Italy and other nations, visiting as many missionaries as they can. Included also in the Leimkuehlers' journey will be Monaco, where the former Grace Kelly and Prince Rainier were recently married.

Their final lap of the tour will take them back to England. There they will board the Queen Mary to return to the United States about July 3.

Rev. Leimkuehler said he anticipates an increased knowledge of missionaries and conditions existing in European countries by the trip.

Circus Performer Thought Fire Alarm Was a Mail Box

NEW YORK (P)—When Segura Attina, a tight-wire performer with Barnum & Bailey Circus, went to mail a letter here last week he pulled a fire alarm lever.

In Spain the mail boxes are red, she explained yesterday to Magistrate Reuben Levy, and she thought she was opening a mail slot. Levy dismissed the case.

Third Annual Jaycee Home Show Has Ideas For Every Resident Who Visits Exhibition

Everybody seemed to be having a grand time Wednesday night at the Home Show sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, and Convention Hall at Liberty Park was really jammed with people. Couples young, old and in between were looking over every little detail of the refrigerators, stoves, cabinets and dozens of other things for the home. There was real interest on their faces, whether someone was explaining all the new ideas or whether they were just finding them for themselves.

The electronic stoves seemed to hold the attention of the crowds that gathered about and there was an amazed look on the faces as a sack with an ear of popcorn was put in the oven and only a few seconds later came out all popped. And then there is the opportunity to win a trip to Europe. How? Why, by naming a glass-lined aluminum lap siding that needs no paint for years, reduces winter fuel bills and gives added protection. That comes also in vertical paneling. There are asbestos siding and asbestos shingles, vinyl plastic paint for indoors and outdoors, paints of all colors and kinds for every need. It would be wise to pick up some of the literature on this, too, because much of it only tells the kind of paint to use, but also exactly how to paint.

How to put on plastic tile, too, is demonstrated at one of the booths, which is a help to a do-it-yourself man. Start each piece of tile by putting the top part against the one above it and moving it down until it falls in place. Then there will be no cement, or whatever holds it on, oozing out between. There is also that perfectly balanced concrete and mortar in a bag for some one who wants to do a little work around the house, such as walks, driveways, base-ments or fish ponds.

There are built-ins for the kitchens, any type and anything that might suit the fancy of the queen of the kitchen. In plumbing there are sinks that are just the thing needed, there are stoves of all kinds, electric, gas and electronic. There are ready built snackbars. And there are dishwashers.

Floor coverings included asphalt tile, linoleum and carpeting, and for walls there is real wood paneling that you can install yourself.

For comfort there are air conditioners, room coolers and fans of all types. There are frameless windows. (Please turn to Page 6, Col

One-Car Crash On Thursday Hurts AB Man

A one-car accident on U. S. Highway 50 about a mile west of LaMonte, resulted in the car being demolished, the lone occupant being slightly injured and traffic tied up for a short time. The accident occurred about 3 a.m. Thursday.

M/Sgt. Hilary Edward Steffes, 39, of Whiteman Air Force Base, blamed the heavy fog for his mishap. Steffes suffered a laceration on his nose, slight cuts on the right cheek and bruises.

He was taken to the base hospital by Sgt. E. W. Van Winkle and Trooper Richard Joos where medical treatment was rendered.

Steffes said he was heading back to the base from Sedalia when he lost the highway because of the fog. The car skidded, went off the south side of the highway, skidded sideways and started rolling down the shoulder and a slight embankment.

It is believed the car rolled over at least twice. The back window was knocked out, the right door to the 1951 Chevrolet Tudor sedan was practically ripped from the car and made into a twisted mass of metal and the front end was also damaged.

Steffes apparently was thrown from the car on to the highway as it rolled. He lost his Hamilton wrist watch at the time.

Drivers of two gasoline transport trucks, and a motorist headed for Jefferson City stopped to offer aid and remained at the scene directing traffic until the arrival of the State Highway Patrol.

The Chamberlin wrecker towed the car to the Chamberlin Service Garage.

Hager Arrested In Greenlease Case Questioning

ST. LOUIS, April 26.—John Hager, who tipped police to the whereabouts of the kidnap-slayer of little Bobby Greenlease, was arrested here today for further questioning in the continuing ransom investigation.

Hager, former St. Louis cab driver who now lives in Los Angeles, came here for the funeral last Tuesday of his mother, Mrs. Alice M. Hager.

He was preparing to return to California today when detectives picked him up and took him to police headquarters for questioning.

James E. Chapman, chief of detectives, said Hager would be questioned about the search for the missing $303,720 of the $600,000 ransom and about a .38 caliber revolver found in the car of Joseph Costello, ex-convict head of the Ace Cab Co., for which Hager once drove.

Costello, also a central figure in the ransom inquiry, was charged with violation of the federal firearms act in an indictment returned last Monday by a federal grand jury in the pistol case.

Hager drove Carl Austin Hall, one of the executed kidnap-killers of the Kansas City boy, to a motel here in October, 1953, and later told of carrying two heavy suitcases into Hall's room. He later tipped off Police Lt. Louis Shoulters where Hall could be found.

Shoulders and Patrolman Elmer Dolan made the arrest. Both officers were convicted of perjury following their appearance before a Kansas City federal grand jury and were sentenced to prison. Dolan has completed his sentence.

Ex-Marshall Bungles Holdup; Gets Prison Sentence of 15 Years

PADUCAH, Ky., April 27.—A former town marshal who thoroughly bungled an attempted bank holdup pleaded guilty and was sentenced to 15 years in prison by Federal Judge Roy Shelburne yesterday.

Robert Herman Maxey, 52, contended he "blacked out" after he entered the Citizens Deposit Bank of Arlington last Feb. 10. But psychiatrists ruled him legally sane.

Here is how officials described the bungled holdup attempt:

Maxey thought the bank closed an hour earlier than it did, so he aroused suspicions of a woman who tried to enter the bank's locked door. She notified authorities.

After scooping up more than $7,000, Maxey was met in front of the building by a posse organized during the robbery. The pistol he had used in the holdup wouldn't fire. He had used the wrong ammunition.

And officers discovered his car, parked near the bank, wouldn't start. It had to be towed away.

Seven Children Burn to Death In Home Fire

TOLEDO, Ohio, April 27.—Seven children were burned to death early today in their frame house eight miles northwest of Toledo.

The parents, John and Laurel Cooper, were not at home when the fire started shortly after midnight.

The children were identified by Sylvania Fire Chief Richard Campbell as Brenda Joyce, 9; Leonardo, 9; Jacqueline, 6; John, 4; Sherely Jean, 3; Georgia Marie 2; and Carter Stephen, 2 months.

Cooper, 31, is employed as a foundry worker in Toledo and his wife Laurel, 29, works as a waitress. They are Negroes.

Their home was in Michigan, a few miles from the Ohio village of Sylvania.

Campbell said the origin of the fire had not been discovered.

The father had left the children at home asleep while he drove his wife to work and was returning when the fire broke out, Campbell said.

A neighbor who called Sylvania firemen said flames raced through the home so fast that any rescue attempts would have been futile. The bodies of four children were found in their beds. The others, apparently trying to escape, were sprawled in a hallway and at a door.

Campbell said the house had nearly burned to the ground when the firemen arrived.

Two-Years-Old Falls 10 Feet Over Cliff

LAGUNA BEACH, Calif., April 27.—Mark Edwards, 2, isn't fully aware how close he came to death.

The boy fell 10 feet down the almost perpendicular cliff overlooking the rocky surf here yesterday. He landed on a narrow ledge, just wide enough to hold him.

Mark had been walking with his grandmother Mrs. Alfred Bauer. She stopped for an instant to look at some flowers and in an instant he was gone.

Mrs. Bauer was horrified as she looked down on Mark, but she impressed on the tot the necessity of remaining still. If he had squirmed six inches he would have plunged 100 feet.

A park attendant, police, an ambulance and a crowd assembled in almost no time. Mark kept looking up at his grandmother.

Police lowered a man to the boy, and the two were pulled up to safety.

Here is how officials described the bungled holdup attempt:

Maxey thought the bank closed an hour earlier than it did, so he aroused suspicions of a woman who tried to enter the bank's locked door. She notified authorities.

After scooping up more than $7,000, Maxey was met in front of the building by a posse organized during the robbery. The pistol he had used in the holdup wouldn't fire. He had used the wrong ammunition.

And officers discovered his car, parked near the bank, wouldn't start. It had to be towed away.

Wensuc was attacked about 1 p.m. yesterday in a latrine in the prison yard. Hoffman said the man staggered a short distance to the hospital, where he died without making a statement.

Producer Says Milk Prices Must Go Up

MINNEAPOLIS, April 27.—Upward revision of fluid milk prices paid farmers is necessary to forestall "chaotic market conditions," an Iowa producer told a special department of agriculture hearing yesterday.

Harold McGinnis, president of the Eastern Iowa Co-operative Dairy Producers, said dairymen in his area had been placed at a disadvantage by recent department price orders.

McGinnis pointed out that the new April 16-June 30 price level in the Quad Cities area is $.44 per hundredweight for fluid milk, $.42 in the Dubuque district and $.37 for the Cedar Rapids-Lowa City territory.

As a result, McGinnis said, producers are shifting into the higher price areas with "resultant instability and disorder that could retard the best development of the dairy industry in eastern Iowa."

Spokesmen for nine other mid-western milksheds supported an average 50 cents per 100 pounds boost in basic allowances, an increase they estimated would cost consumers about one cent per quart.

Citing a "strike" by producers in the Detroit area earlier this month, Glenn Lake, president of the Michigan Milk Producers Assn., said the raise was needed to insure future orderly marketing.

Willard J. Grant, of the Nebraska-Iowa Non-stock Milk Assn., said there had been some talk about farmers withholding milk from the Sioux City, Iowa area in dissatisfaction over low prices.

Spokesmen for the Twin City (Minneapolis-St. Paul) Milk Producers Assn. said the upward adjustment was needed "to safeguard milk supplies and forestall acts of violence such as cropped up at Detroit."

Vernon Sjoquist of the Spink County Dairy at Redfield, S.D., the increase, said he had heard no collective demand for it from farmers in that area. He said he expected buyers to resist any raise.

Three Sioux Falls, S.D. dairymen agreed with Sjoquist. Alvin Schock said farmers got 10.1 percent more income from milk last year than in 1954.

Two others, D. W. Sutherland and Ralph Rogers, said not only was there no emergency but that milk supplies were entirely adequate at present price levels.

Six of One Family Will Get Married At Same Ceremony

BLenheim, Ont., April 27.—When the kids said they wanted to get married, Papa Leo Dorsser stated firmly he would attend "only one wedding." That's what they're going to have—sixty.

On Saturday morning six Dorssers will gather at the alter of St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church to exchange marriage vows with six other residents of this southern Ontario town. It will be the biggest multiple wedding in the modern history of Canada.

The marrying Dorssers on the female side are Grada, Mien, Christian, and Dora. The two brothers are Andre and Cor.

They will marry, in the order listed, Ben Luiking, Gerard Willem, Sjaak Van Haren, Wim Vandenberg, Annie Heuveldmans and Joanna Menheere.

Church authorities are busy figuring out the details for the ceremony — how the party will go up the aisle, how one father will escort the four girls, the order in which they will stand at the alter and so on.

A local bakery is turning out six wedding cakes — all different.
